Participants must provide their own generator if power is needed. Arrive anytime after 6:30am. You can drive to your space to unload, and all vehicles must be back out of the gate by 9 a.m. Break down is after awards ceremony, approximately 3 p.m.

“Community Cook Off” is a separate division from the professional chili cooks. Attendees will have ballots to vote for their favorite chili among community cooks. To receive a taste of your chili, they will present an orange ticket. You will be provided a supply of 2 oz tasting cups, which you fill half way.

Promote your business or organization at your booth! Have fun! Use safe food-handling practices!

The Happy Trails Chili Cook-Off (formerly Wannatouchama) is a regional qualifying event for the International Chili Society World Championship and has been building a loyal audience for 9 years. The Community Division Champion is sure to become a coveted award in the High Desert!
